ANNUAL EVENTS

SPRING

Brooklyn International Film Festival: Brooklyn's only international film festival, held at the Brooklyn Museum of Art. 718-388-4306

Sakura Matsuri/Japanese Cherry Blossom Festival: Two-day celebration of spring featuring Japanese music, art, food and dance. Brooklyn Botanic Garden / 718-623-7333

Bay Fest & Blessing of the Fleet: Live music, entertainment and diving and rowing demonstrations are capped by the late afternoon blessing ceremony; a parade of boats ends with a circle at sea and a harmonious tooting of horns. Sunday following Mother's Day. In Sheephead Bay, Brooklyn - Bay Improvement Group / 718-646-9206

Annual Pier Show: Month-long exhibit, Premier contemporary art event featuring work by over 250 artists, displayed in a spectacular 30,000 square foot Civil War-era warehouse located right at the water's edge. Brooklyn Waterfront Artists Coalition / 718-596-2507

DanceAfrica: America's oldest and largest annual celebration of African & African-American dance, music and culture. Memorial Day Weekend. Brooklyn Academy of Music (BAM) / 718-636-4100

SUMMER

CIRCUS Sundays: The circus comes to Brooklyn every Sunday in June aboard a floating barge museum in Red Hook. Waterfront Museum / 718-624-4719

Mermaid Parade: Brooklyn's salute to summer takes place just after the summer solstice. Celebrate the odd, the outrageous and the wacky! Coney Island USA / 718-372-5159

Celebrate Brooklyn Performing Arts Festival: FREE, summer-long festival offering an eclectic mix of music, dance, spoken word and film. BRIC/Brooklyn Information & Culture 718-855-7882, ext. 45

Annual International African Arts Festival: Outdoor cultural festival, held in Central Brooklyn during the July 4th weekend, features an African Marketplace, events for children and two stages with live performances. 718-638-6700

Giglio Festival: Festival in honor of the South Italian Saint Paulinus founded by Italian immigrants from Nola in 1903. More than 200 men join together to parade a 65-foot-tall, multi tiered tower - on a platform filled with musicians! - through the streets of northern Williamsburg. Our Lady of Mount Carmel & St. Paulinus / 718-384-0223

Brighton Jubilee: Stretching along Brighton Beach Avenue, alongside the world-famous boardwalk, are hundreds of merchants, vendors, and the opportunity to taste foods from many nations. Last Sunday in August. Brighton Neighborhood Association / 718-891-0800

Great Irish Fair: Annual event sponsored by the Ancient Order of Hibernians features stages of entertainment, food and special events. 2nd weekend in September. Ancient Order of Hibernians / 718-266-1234 or 718-648-3931

Last Sunday: Atlantic Antic: A mile of fun with over 400 vendors of crafts, collectibles and culinary treats plus live entertainment. Atlantic Avenue Local Development Corp / 718-875-8993

AUTUMN

Atlantic Antic: Chili Pepper Festival: Celebration of all things hot and spicy. First weekend in October Brooklyn Botanic Garden 718-875-8993

d.u.m.b.o. art under the bridge festival: Three-day multimedia arts festival under the Brooklyn and Manhattan bridges featuring hundreds of local artists; alternative theater; documentary film; and clothing design. Weekend following Columbus Day. d.u.m.b.o. arts center / 718-694-0831

WINTER

Winter Festival: Craft demonstrations, storytelling, toy-making, Dutch cookies - and a special guest of honor who arrives on horseback! Lefferts Historic House (in Prospect Park) / 718-789-2822

New Year's Eve Fireworks: Ring in the New Year with fireworks beginning at 11:59pm on December 31. Long Meadow, Prospect Park / General Events Hotline: 718-965-8999
