HARLEM

The original village of Harlem was established in 1658 by Dutch Governor Peter Stuyvesant and named New Harlem after the Dutch city of Harlem, located just north of Central Park. Harlem has been a major center of African-American culture since the early 20th century making many contributions in jazz, fashion, hip-hop, art, Gospel and soul food. Visit the famous Apollo Theatre or the new shopping complex "Harlem USA" or enjoy a meal at one of the many restaurants.
